

This university licence agreement is between ACCESS COPYRIGHT, THE CANADIAN COPYRIGHT LICENSING AGENCY ("Access Copyright"), located at Suite 800, 1 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ontario, M5E 1E5, and:

(the "Licensee"),

located at _____

Access Copyright is a not-for-profit collective society that represents the reproduction rights of rightsholders, and grants licences for the use of copyright-protected published works. Access Copyright has filed a tariff with the Copyright Board of Canada, the Access Copyright Post-Secondary Educational Institutions Tariff, 2011-2013, to cover the reproduction of published works by post-secondary educational institutions across Canada, excluding Quebec (the "Tariff").

The Institution is a university that uses photocopiers, scanners and other reproduction technologies to reproduce copyright-protected works. The Licensee wishes to obtain a licence to legally reproduce copyright-protected works in ways that would be outside the scope of fair dealing, or any other applicable exception, under the Copyright Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-42, as amended from time to time (the "Copyright Act").

The parties wish to enter into an agreement, instead of relying on the Tariff, to facilitate access, use, reproduction and distribution of copyright-protected works, while respecting academic freedom and privacy.

The parties therefore agree as follows:

8. Royalties

- (a) For each Academic Year during the term of this agreement, the Licensee shall pay to Access Copyright a royalty calculated by multiplying the number of its Full-time-equivalent Students, as of the FTE Determination Date for that Academic Year, by the royalty rate of $26.00 CAD (the "Royalties"). For any months in the Term that fall outside of an Academic Year, the Licensee shall pay to Access Copyright the Royalties prorated by the number of months in that period.
- (b) Starting January 1, 2016, the Royalties payable for each one-year Academic Year shall be increased by the Consumer Price Index for the previous calendar year as determined and published by Statistics Canada as the All-items index.
- (c) The Royalties payable under this agreement are exclusive of any federal or provincial taxes.

9. Payment

- (a) The Licensee shall deliver to Access Copyright, by no later than November 15 of each Academic Year (or the next business day if this should fall on a weekend or holiday), a written report specifying the number of Full-time-equivalent Students as of the FTE Determination Date for that Academic Year, calculated in accordance with guidelines agreed upon by Access Copyright and the Licensee, each acting reasonably.
- (b) Access Copyright shall issue to the Licensee, by no later than ten (10) business days after receiving from the Licensee the information delivered pursuant to subsection 9(a), an invoice setting out the amount payable by the Licensee for that Academic Year pursuant to subsection 8(a), together with any federal and provincial taxes applicable thereto, and the Licensee shall pay the Royalties and applicable taxes in a single lump-sum payment on or before December 15 of that Academic Year.
- (c) In order to ascertain the most accurate number of Full-time-equivalent Students, the Licensee may, in its discretion, recalculate its number of Full-time equivalent Students in February of each Academic Year, using the same methodology contemplated by subsection 9(a) and deliver to Access Copyright a written report specifying the recalculated number of Full-time equivalent Students on or before March 15 of said Academic Year. If the resulting number is greater than that previously reported to Access Copyright in accordance with subsection 9(b), Access Copyright shall issue a revised invoice to the Licensee within ten (10) business days after receiving the report, and (i) if the Royalties payable are greater than those already paid pursuant to subsection 9(b), the Licensee shall pay the additional Royalties and any applicable taxes thereon in a single lump-sum payment within ten (10) business days after receiving the revised invoice; and (ii) if the Royalties payable are less than those already paid pursuant to subsection 9(b), Access Copyright shall refund the difference to the Licensee within ten (10) business days after issuing the revised invoice.

10. Interest

Any payment not received by Access Copyright by its due date shall bear interest from such due date until the date the payment is received. Interest on any unpaid balance shall be calculated daily at a rate equal to one percent above the bank rate effective on the last day of the previous month (as published by the Bank of Canada). Interest shall not compound.

11. Reporting and Survey of Bibliographic and Volume Data

- (a) The Licensee shall maintain records of all Copies made by the Licensee for use in paper Course Collections, which records shall specify, for each of such Copies made, the title, excerpt title, publisher, author or authors (where known), the ISBN/ISSN number (where known), the number of pages in the Published Work, the specific pages Copied, the total number of pages Copied and the number of sets made. Each Academic Year during the Term, the Licensee shall provide copies of such records to Access Copyright as follows:

- (b) To the extent reasonable, the Licensee shall use the logging tool provided by Access Copyright at <http://www.accesscopyright.ca/educators/full-reporting-logs-for-post-secondary-institutions/>, or as otherwise provided by Access Copyright.
- (c) Within six months of signing this agreement, or as otherwise agreed between the parties, the Licensee shall participate if requested in the survey ("Survey") and/or further reporting to be designed by a group of experts comprising of no more than five representatives appointed by the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada (AUCC) and no more than five representatives appointed by Access Copyright. The purposes of the Survey and/or further reporting shall be to provide:
 - (i) valid and reliable bibliographic data to Access Copyright for the purposes of allowing Access Copyright to make a fair distribution of the Royalties to its affiliates; and
 - (ii) valid and reliable volume data to the Licensee and Access Copyright for the purposes of trending the appropriateness of the Royalties and other terms and conditions of this agreement.
- (d) The Survey methodology and reporting structure pursuant to subsection 11 (c) will incorporate the following guiding principles:
 - (i) The Survey will attempt to minimize the administrative burden on the parties, and in particular on the Licensee's academic staff and Students;
 - (ii) The Survey must comply with all applicable privacy legislation and the Licensee's privacy policies;
 - (iii) The Survey shall respect the principles of academic freedom, for example, by not providing access to the Licensee's, its Students' and academic staff's chat rooms and e-mails;
 - (iv) To the fullest extent reasonable, the Survey will only collect and provide Access Copyright with anonymized bibliographic and volume data; and
 - (v) Access Copyright acknowledges that the Licensee is bound by collective agreements.

12. Compliance

The Licensee shall take reasonable steps to ensure that it complies with the conditions in sections 3, 4, 5 and 6 and that no Copying by Authorized Persons or Subcontractors takes place in contravention of the conditions set out in sections 3, 4, 5 and 6.

13. Indemnity

- (a) Access Copyright will indemnify and hold harmless the Licensee, and any Authorized Person, from and against any damages, losses, expenses and liabilities (including reasonable legal and professional costs) resulting directly or indirectly from any Claim made against the Licensee or any Authorized Person in relation to:

(i) the Copying of:

- A. a Published Work that has been made available in print format to the public with the consent or acquiescence of the copyright owner that was not, at the time the Copy was made, on the Exclusions List; or
- B. a Published Work that has been made available in born digital format to the public with the consent or acquiescence of the copyright owner that was, at the time the Copy was made, on the Inclusions List,

(ii) by the Licensee or any Authorized Person consistent with the terms and conditions applicable to Repertoire Works under section 3, 4 and 5 of this agreement,

(iii) provided that the Licensee:

- A. provides Access Copyright with notice of the Claim within ten (10) business days of receipt of the Claim or the date of service of the Claim on the Licensee, whichever is later;
- B. is not in breach of its material obligations under this agreement;
- C. does not make any admission of liability, or offer of payment or indemnity, whether on its behalf or on behalf of Access Copyright, without Access Copyright's prior written consent; and
- D. permits Access Copyright to participate in the defence of the Claim in such ways as Access Copyright reasonably requires.

(b) If the Licensee settles any Claim without the prior written consent of Access Copyright, the Licensee shall be deemed to have waived its right to be indemnified by Access Copyright in respect of such Claim.

(c) Notwithstanding subsections 13(a) and (b), this section 13 shall only apply to Claims made against the Licensee or any Authorized Person after the date both parties have signed this agreement.

14. Records Retention and Audit

(a) The Licensee shall keep and preserve, for a period of three years after the end of the Academic Year to which they relate, all records (which may include internal audits) from which the Royalties payable pursuant to this agreement can be readily ascertained.

(b) To verify the accuracy of the reporting provided by the Licensee under section 9(a), Access Copyright (or its agents) may audit these records, no more than once per Academic Year and once during the calendar year immediately following the end of the term of this agreement, on giving five (5) business days' written notice to the Licensee. For the purpose of these audits, Access Copyright shall have the right of access during normal business hours only to those parts of the premises of the Licensee reasonably necessary to access the records retained pursuant to subsection 9(a).

(c) Access Copyright shall, upon request, supply a copy of the report of the audit to the Licensee.

(d) If an audit conducted in accordance with this section reasonably determines that Royalties invoiced by Access Copyright have been understated in respect of any Royalties that ought to have been paid pursuant to this agreement by more than ten per cent (10%), the Licensee shall pay the reasonable costs of the audit.

15. Adjustments

Adjustments in the amount of Royalties (and audit costs if applicable) owed as a result of an audit under section 14, or as a result of an error or omission, shall be applied to the next invoice issued by Access Copyright to the Licensee, or, if this agreement has expired or has been terminated, paid or refunded within twenty (20) business days of receipt of notice of such adjustment(s).

16. Subcontracting of Uses

- (iv) the Subcontractor shall not further subcontract to any other person any rights or obligations granted or imposed under this agreement.

Access Copyright will not require the Subcontractor to pay any additional Royalties in relation to Copies made pursuant to this subsection (a).

(b) Upon request from the Licensee, Access Copyright may authorize a third party that is licensed by Access Copyright to perform the acts set out in section 3 on behalf of the Licensee, subject to the conditions sets out in sections 4, 5 and 6. Access Copyright will notify the Licensee of the third parties that are licensed by Access Copyright and that service the Licensee by no later than October 1 of each Academic Year during the Term. The Licensee shall use best efforts to communicate such notice to its Authorized Persons.

(c) For clarity, the Royalties to be paid pursuant to section 8 include payment for the Copying performed by subcontractors or other third parties in accordance with this section 16.

17. Termination

(a) If the Licensee is in breach of any of its obligations under this agreement, Access Copyright may give written notice to the Licensee of such breach, and if the Licensee does not cure such breach within twenty (20) business days of receipt of such notice, Access Copyright may terminate this agreement. Such termination shall be effective on the receipt of such notice of termination, or the date specified in the notice, whichever is later.

(b) In the event of termination pursuant to section 2(a)(i), 17(a) or 19(c) of this agreement:

- (i) the Licensee shall submit any outstanding payments and interest owing pursuant to sections 9 and 10 of this agreement and any outstanding records pursuant to section 11(a) of this agreement to Access Copyright within twenty (20) business days of the effective date of termination of this agreement;
- (ii) As of the effective date of termination, the Licensee shall within a reasonable time remove anything from the Licensee's premises relating to Access Copyright as a licensor of the Licensee, including notices of the terms and conditions of Copying pursuant to section 7; and
- (iii) Access Copyright shall refund to the Licensee the portion of the Royalty paid under section 8 pro-rated over the Academic Year based on the effective date of termination within twenty (20) business days of the effective date of termination of this agreement.

(c) The obligation of the Licensee to pay outstanding royalties and interest owing to Access Copyright at the end of the Term pursuant to sections 9 and 10 of this agreement, and the obligation to provide records pursuant to section 11(a) of this agreement up to the effective date of the termination of this agreement, shall survive termination of this agreement.

18. Application of the Tariff

Consistent with section 70.191 of the Copyright Act, Access Copyright will not seek to enforce the Tariff, and any renewals, extensions or replacements of the Tariff, against the Licensee during the Term.

19. Renegotiation of Extension Terms

(a) Where either party gives notice pursuant to section 2(a)(ii) of its wish to negotiate the terms and conditions of this agreement, the Licensee and any other institution or institutions that have also entered into a licensing agreement with Access Copyright and that have also given notice of their wish to re-negotiate the terms and conditions this agreement (the Licensee and the other licensees who have given such notice are referred to herein collectively as the “Negotiating Licensees”) shall together choose a negotiating team (the “Institutions’ Negotiating Team”) consisting of no more than five (5) representatives, which shall include senior administrators of the Negotiating Licensees and the AUCC, to negotiate the terms of an amended model licence (an “Amended Model Licence”) in good faith with a negotiating team chosen by Access Copyright (the “Access Copyright Negotiating Team”) consisting of no more than five (5) representatives, which shall include members of Access Copyright’s Board of Directors and staff.

(b) If after a period of thirty (30) business days from the giving of notice under section 2(a)(ii), the Access Copyright Negotiating Team and the Institutions’ Negotiating Team have failed to agree on the terms and conditions of an Amended Model Licence, the Institutions’ Negotiating Team and the Access Copyright Negotiating Team will jointly appoint a mediator to assist the Institutions’ Negotiating Team and the Access Copyright Negotiating Team to reach agreement on the terms and conditions of the Amended Model Licence. The Institutions’ Negotiating Team and Access Copyright will share the mediator’s costs and fees equally. If after an additional period of three (3) months, the Institutions’ Negotiating Team and the Access Copyright Negotiating Team have not reached agreement on the terms and conditions of an Amended Model Licence, the Institutions’ Negotiating Team and the Access Copyright Negotiating Team may, on mutual agreement, extend the time period to attempt to reach such agreement by an additional three (3) months.

(c) If at the end of the period set out in section 19(b), including any extension on mutual agreement, the Institutions’ Negotiating Team and the Access Copyright Negotiating Team have not reached an agreement on the terms and conditions of an Amended Model Licence,

(i) this agreement will terminate at the end of the Term; and

(ii) the obligation of the Licensee to pay outstanding royalties and interest owing to Access Copyright at the end of the Term pursuant to sections 9 and 10 of this agreement, and the obligation to provide records pursuant to section 11(a) of this agreement up to the effective date of the termination of this agreement, shall survive termination of this agreement.

(b) Nothing in this agreement is intended to prevent the Licensee from accessing, using, reproducing or distributing Published Works pursuant to a licence or other arrangement made directly between the Licensee and the copyright holder, copyright owner, or another collective society administering reproduction rights.

21. Disputed Terms

- (a) The parties have agreed to certain definitions for the purposes this agreement; in particular the terms "Copy", "Course Collection" and "Published Work".
- (b) Notwithstanding subsection 21(a), the definitions in subsection 21(a) have been agreed to on a without prejudice basis to the ability of the parties to argue in any proceeding unrelated to this agreement that a different definition should apply. In particular, the parties note that they disagree on whether every act in the definition of "Copy", "Course Collection" and "Published Work" constitute a compensable reproduction under the Copyright Act.

Print and Digital Copying Guidelines

Your institution's licence with Access Copyright provides Students and Staff with permission to copy within or in support of your institution's mandate, in addition to ways that are covered by fair dealing and other permitted uses under the Copyright Act.

What can I copy?

You can copy any published work in Access Copyright's repertoire. Use the Access Copyright Repertoire Look Up Tool, available at <http://www.accesscopyright.ca/look-up-tool>. Not in Access Copyright's repertoire are works on the Exclusions List, works published in a country that does not have a reciprocal agreement with Access Copyright, works with a notice indicating that the work cannot be copied under a collective licence and business cases which are available for purchase. To view the Access Copyright Exclusions and Reciprocal Agreement Lists, please visit <http://www.accesscopyright.ca/exclusions-list/>.

For published works in Access Copyright's repertoire, you can:

- Project and display copies, such as on overheads, on LCD or plasma monitors, or interactive whiteboards.

How much can I copy?

You may copy up to 10% of a repertoire work or make a copy of a repertoire work that is:

- an entire article, short story, play, essay or poem, or reproduction of an artistic work from a volume containing other published works.
- an entire article or page from a newspaper or periodical.
- an entire entry from an encyclopedia or similar reference work or an entire reproduction of an artistic work from a publication.
- one chapter of a book, provided the chapter is no more than 20% of that book.

You may copy up to 20% of a repertoire work or any of the above for a Course Collection and for certain library collection management purposes. This is a summary for ease of reference.
